AFTER THE HONEYMOON

A young couple went on a cruise for their honeymoon. When they returned the bride called her mother. "How was the honeymoon?" asked the mother. "The honeymoon was fine." She replied. "But as soon as we returned to the apartment, he began using horrible language. Things I'd never heard before, terrible four-letter words. I want to come home." Alarmed, the mother asked, "What four-letter words?" The bride replied, "Dust, iron, wash, and cook."

Things My Parents Used to Say...

"When she saw a pretty girl, my mother would remark. 'She's a pretty as a peach in a slop bucket.' and when she didn't feel well, she would say, 'I'm as weak as pond water.'"

"When there was a conflict my grandmother would always say, 'Every eye shut ain't sleep and every goodbye ain't gone.'"

A Sunday school teacher was telling a group of 4-year olds about Jesus, Joseph, and Mary. After the lesson the kids were asked to draw a picture depicting their favorite part of the story. The teacher received many pictures of the baby Jesus in the manger surrounded by animals, pictures of three wise men etc.

One drawing puzzled her. It was a picture of an airplane with 4 people in it. She called the artist up to explain his picture. He pointed out Mary, Joseph, and the baby Jesus, and said that this was their "flight" to Egypt. The teacher then asked about the other man in the plane. "Oh, that's Pontius the pilot."
