

TEEN MINISTRY

Good Morning!

Well, we have finally arrived! This is the last week to register for camp. Next Sunday, we will be arriving at camp and getting ready for a great week!

Spots are filling up fast, so do not delay. Scan the code below to start your registration. Then head straight home and start packing! Next Sunday, after church services, you will make the trip to NWOCYC to claim your bunk! Camper check-in is from 2:00 - 4:30 PM.

If you need help with the cost of camp or have scholarship money to donate, please see me, James Gary, or Matt Dahm. Thank you to everyone who donated so our kids can enjoy a week of camp and learn more about our Lord.

When we return from camp, our next Food Giveaway will be Saturday, June 29th. The food will be delivered on Thursday June 27th at 11 AM. We will need volunteers at 11:00 AM to unload the trucks and also at 12:00 PM to help pack boxes and organize the food. Volunteers are what make our Giveaway happen, and we appreciate you all!

-Josh Ball

REGISTER FOR CAMP RIGHT HERE!

THANK YOU—I would like to thank the Richland Road family for all the prayers during my stay at the hospital and rehab time. It's good to know that so many people support you.

In Christian Love, Molly Lu Balis

THANK YOU to my brothers and sisters at Richland Road for your prayers, calls, visits and your helpfulness you have given me since and during my recent illness. Thank you quilting ladies for the beautiful blanket.

REACHING OUT TO MEET YOUR NEEDS THROUGH HIS LOVE

Just Between Us

THE BEST SUMMER UNDER THE SUN! Why not make it precisely that? Be faithful in your attendance and support, optimistic and prayerful, and always be on the lookout for someone somewhere whom you can encourage to share our services. Do what you can to make our week of camp, vacation Bible School, food, clothing and school supply giveaways a glory to God! Do what you can where you can to help in all the ways you can!

SEVEN DAYS TO CHURCH CAMP!!! Excitement is building!!! Our young people will be headed toward Northwestern Ohio Christian Camp next Sunday for a week of Spiritual Renewal! We would like to have every boy and girl experience the excitement of a week of camp learning the Word of God! The church camp provides a great place to build lifelong friendships, to be still and know God, and to be daily surrounded by fellow Christians who want the best for you! Josh Ball, our new camp director, and his staff will be providing a safe and spiritually uplifting week that will be remembered for years to come! Parents if you have not yet registered your children, please do so by going to www.nwocyc.org. If you need a camp scholarship, please see Josh Ball!

VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL IS ONLY SIX WEEKS AWAY! Make sure you put Vacation Bible School on your calendar, July 22-25, each evening at 7:00 PM. This year's theme is "POWER UP!" It will be a Super Mario Brothers VBS! Throughout the week, there will be singing, skits, Bible lessons, games, a 70-foot obstacle course, and more! Please start now by inviting your family, friends, neighbors, and anyone you can think of! This year in the adult class, we have invited a different preacher to come and speak on the theme topic each evening. They are as follows:

Monday Night - "Giant Slayer: David" - Dave Edmonds - Cassel Hill Church of Christ

Tuesday Night - Chuck Forsythe - "Save the World: Lazarus" - Xenia Church of Christ

Wednesday Night - Jeff Darby - "Kings Challenge: Esther" - Marysville Church of Christ

Thursday Night - Woody Biggs - "Water Walker: Peter" - Stop Nine Church of Christ

In order to have a successful Vacation Bible School we are going to be calling on every available person to help out with either skits, lead a group, help with construction of props, participate in a skit, etc. So, in the coming weeks, when you are asked to help, I hope your answer will be, "Yes, I would be glad to!"

THANK YOU for the cards, flowers, and messages of words of comfort at the passing of my sister Janie Whitworth who passed away recently while we were on vacation. Janie was my oldest sister, but more than anything, a child of God. Until her health failed, she was a very active member of the Denton Church of Christ in Denton, Texas. When Covid hit, she began to watch our service on YouTube every Sunday. Throughout the years, she was a great encouragement to me as a preacher.

NEVER TO LATE TO FINISH THE RACE. In 1912, marathon runner Shizo Kanakuri was chosen to represent Japan in the Summer Olympics in Stockholm. He began the race with the rest of the runners but, along the way, was overcome with heat. He stopped for refreshment but stayed a little too long -- more than an hour. It was now, he thought, too late to get back in the race. He took a train to his hotel and caught a boat back home, too ashamed to tell anyone he was leaving. For more than 50 years, Shizo was listed as a missing person in Sweden until a journalist finally found him; he had spent the last several decades living a quiet life in southern Japan. In 1966, the Swedish Public Television network called him with an offer: Would you like to finish your run? The 85-year-old Kanakuri accepted and traveled to Stockholm to finish the race he had started so many years before. This time, he did cross the finish line; his final time was 54 years, 8 months, 6 days, 8 hours, 32 minutes, and 20.3 seconds. Our reward is not for starting the race; it's for finishing it. We already know that. As Paul said in his farewell, "I consider my life worth nothing to me, if only I may finish the race and complete the task the Lord Jesus has given me..." (Acts 20:24). Have you quit the race? Remember, it's never too late to get back in the race. You can start running again today. The finish line is still where it used to be. - Russell
