FROM OUR SHEPHERDS

Out of all the four seasons we are blessed with, fall is my favorite. I like getting apples, picking out pumpkins, and watching football. I will soon be able to see the color of the leaves change. The hills and the mountains will be beautiful in color. Then, this color will be gone, and another season will come - winter.

For every season we have, God provides and prepares the earth for the next season. We cannot stay in spring, summer, fall, or winter forever, as much as we would like to. This is true with life. God provides us with our needs in every season of our lives. We see seasons of joy and sorrow, work and rest, calm and storms. We watch our children grow up, and that reminds us that nothing stays the same except God.

In Ecclesiastes 3:1-11, There is a time for everything and a season for every activity under the heavens: a time to be born and a time to die. God uses the word seasons to describe our life experiences and the different stages we go through.

Some seasons seem to go quickly, while others seem to hang on forever. Whatever life season we are going through, we need to see God working in our lives.

Our seasons of life are temporary. One day, they will stop changing, and then we will enter our endless season of life. It will be beautiful!

Galatians 6:9 says, "And let us not be weary in doing good, for at the proper time we will reap a harvest if we do not give up."

-Keith Rogers
