2 Corinthians 9:7

Each of you should give what you have decided in your heart to give, not reluctantly or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver.

Reaching out to meet your needs through His love

FROM OUR SHEPHERDS

Did you know that an eagle knows when a storm is coming? You might wonder where it goes to hide. It doesn't. An eagle will fly to a high point and wait for the storm to arrive. When the storm hits, the eagle sets its wings so the wind can pick it up and lift it above the storm. As the storm rages, the eagle soars above it.

The longer we live, at some time in our lives, we will face storms in our journey. Our storms might not be connected to the weather. They may be health-related, personal, family stress, spiritual challenges, or unplanned bumps, potholes, and curves along life's road.

We must always remember to pray because we are not alone. Are you looking for God in the middle of your storm? Hardships and storms sometimes cause us to doubt that God is good or we will learn to grow in our relationship with our Lord. With God's help, we, like the eagle, can rise above life's storms and challenges. It should be our prayer to finish on a higher plane, a destination of a heavenly home. Keep your eyes fixed on Christ.

Psalm 61:2 - "When my heart is overwhelmed, lead me to the rock that is higher than I."
