FROM OUR SHEPHERDS

<sup>1</sup> So I exhort the elders among you, as a fellow elder and a witness of the sufferings of Christ, as well as a partaker in the glory that is going to be revealed: <sup>2</sup> shepherd the flock of God that is among you, exercising oversight, not under compulsion, but willingly, as God would have you; not for shameful gain, but eagerly; <sup>3</sup> not domineering over those in your charge, but being examples to the flock. <sup>4</sup> And when the chief Shepherd appears, you will receive the unfading crown of glory. (1 Peter 5:1-4)

Last Sunday, Josh Ball, Mike Hallabrin, and Russell Howard joined Keith Rogers and me as your elders. The five of us will have responsibility not only for the Richland Road believers but also for those who meet on Marion Road in Bucyrus.

As elders, we take very seriously the responsibilities of caring for this flock of believers. We met earlier this week and talked quite a bit about the idea of shepherding. Jesus is our Chief Shepherd, and we serve under him with the goal of not losing a single one of his sheep. We believe that the best way to do this is to begin making connections with each and every member. Those connections might come in the form of a phone call, a visit, or an invitation to come and have dinner with us. It might be as simple as spending a few extra minutes in fellowship with you when we gather for worship or Bible class.

Over the next few weeks, we will be working out the best way to do this. In the meantime, we want you to know that any one of us is always available to speak with you whenever you need it. Don't be afraid to approach us or call us.

We look forward to seeing the great things the Lord will do in this church.
