Children's Ministry

Hi Kids!

I am happy to have this chance to say hello! This is the first time my turn has come to write to you since late November, so I want to first say that even though it was a couple of weeks ago, I really appreciate all the help that we had with putting the Christmas party together. It was a really fun time! We are so fortunate to have such wonderful, willing helpers in our Children's Ministry! Whenever I have the chance, I will be sure to express my gratitude for them! You guys are the best! On a sidenote, we are ALWAYS in need of helpers in the Children's Ministry, since most of our current helpers do so much already... If you think you may be able to help out, please don't hesitate to talk to us about it! You don't have to commit to a giant job; we are grateful for any willing help for our kids! Remember, these kiddos will be the next group of adults someday, and we want to make sure that they are growing and flourishing as much as possible in the Word of God!

Next, I'd like to bring you up to speed about a few changes that we are working on for this new year. Over the last few weeks, we've been talking about what kind of changes might help us do a better job for everyone. One thing that came up pretty consistently in this conversation is that we would love to see more people come around for Sunday morning Bible classes. So, it was decided that for the rest of this season, we will move Bible Bowl practice from Sunday morning to Wednesday nights at 6pm before Bible Discovery, so we can inject a little more life into the regular Sunday children's classes. With that, we hope to inspire many others to start coming and working to build up the classes to their former glory. I am so glad that you have decided to come to worship with us, but there is SO MUCH MORE happening than just the Sunday morning worship service. In this time when we're all supposed to be making resolutions, please let me beg you to consider one: let your kids be part of a class and join one of the adult classes while you're here! It would be so encouraging to all of us!

See you next Sunday at 9:45! ... am, not pm. :-)

Talk to you soon!

-Ryan
